FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Westwood, MA April 10, 2006 – Christy May, Realtor® and Publisher of Broker Agent Magazine, recently joined RE/MAX LANDMARK and will work out of the Westwood office. Her Real Estate expertise includes community specialist in Westwood, Canton, Norwood, Dedham, Dover/Sherborn, and extends to Sharon, Walpole, and Foxboro, where she now lives. Her experience in the highest and best use of land brings her opportunities for large land listings and concept developments. Her Internet research capabilities cover approximately 90% of the state of Massachusetts, as well as areas of Connecticut, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island. Christy May can share the benefit of instant access to a database of more than 45,000 properties for sale and to more than one million off-market listings, assessment, tax roll, and deed transfers via MLSpin and commercial sites. She offers her clients daily listing updates to the national real estate site REALTOR.com®, instant real-time property matches to buyers and sellers, and access to many systems. Christy is at home on the Internet, and can offer buyer and seller clients all of the best tools available to value, find, buy, and sell their home or land.

Her personal experience includes estate property sale, dealing with probate, and includes best-use land planning and an understanding of historic homes, parkland, farmland, wetlands and development law. Christy believes in understanding what her clients would like to accomplish and carefully matches real estate planning and activity to these desires. She is focusing on planning assistance for buyers and sellers and this includes matching lifestyle changes with changes in real estate.

Her community relations experience is intertwined with involvement in town comprehensive planning. She has served Westwood as representative to the Transportation Advisory Council and member of the board of OPEN. Her regional involvement includes participation in Metropolitan Area Planning Council programs. Her planning thoughts have helped direct best use of many properties.

Christy has her Masters in Communications from Boston University and two undergraduate degrees. She has owned and operated DM Communications, a strategic marketing and communications firm which currently publishes Broker Agent Magazine and offers interactive online training programs for pre-foreclosure planning for real estate agents and owners. Before focusing on real estate, she held positions in production and promotion at Channels 5, 4 and 56. She was Advertising and Promotion Manager for a major multi-system cable TV operator and an international trade show company. She was also responsible for customer satisfaction programs for leading technology companies.

Christy has one daughter who attended Canton and Westwood Schools and who graduated from Dana Hall and Carnegie Mellon University. She has two step-sons who live nearby and operate Quality Connections in Foxboro. Her fiancé works at Starkweather and Shepley in Westwood.

Christy is a highly respected real estate salesperson in the community and we are thrilled to have her as part of our RE/MAX Landmark team. RE/MAX Landmark, Realtors, the leading real estate organization in the area with residential and commercial expertise, and has offices in Westwood, Milton, Dorchester, Stoughton, Sharon and Taunton.
